

I value the services of K-Love. It is the only radio station I listen to. I know many other people in my community that listen to K-Love and enjoy what it has to offer. I believe it has made a positive impact on my community. It is encouraging and safe to listen to, we need this type of programming desperately.